JOHN E. FETZER
Chairman of the Board

John E. Fetzer is a man of quiet design.

A man of dignity and business genius, Fetzer is as revered for his behind-the-scenes baseball leadership and innovation as Hall of Famers are celebrated for their on-field heroics.

A self-made man who parlayed radio pioneering into a fortune, Fetzer never lost his zeal for his youthful passion of baseball. He devoted his insightful genius to his No. 1 love—the Detroit Tigers.

Fetzer serves as Chairman of the Tigers' three-man Board of Directors, along with Owner and Vice-Chairman Tom Monaghan and President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Campbell.

This is Fetzer's second term as chairman after selling the club to Monaghan on Oct. 10, 1983.

Throughout his successful career, Fetzer—by design—has remained behind-the-scenes while his accomplishments stand proudly to be enjoyed by Tiger fans and baseball followers throughout the nation.

Under Fetzer's long ownership of the Tigers, Detroit fans have been treated to competitive and enjoyable baseball. And it's been handled with honor and integrity—qualities which have made the Tigers one of the most respected organizations in all of professional sports.

It was Fetzer's decision alone to keep the Tigers in Detroit and part of the workingman's community. It was Fetzer's broadcasting genius that was instrumental in pushing baseball's TV income to levels once thought beyond reach.

But his No. 1 love always has remained the Detroit Tigers.

From November, 1961 until October, 1983, Fetzer served as sole owner of the Tigers. He hand-picked Monaghan to succeed him as sole owner after determining that Monaghan possessed the impeccable qualities of love and devotion to the Tigers necessary to lead this outstanding franchise.

Fetzer's unbending devotion to the Tigers is best summed up by this personal observation: "I've not served as owner of this great franchise—only as its guardian."

A key figure in the three-group syndicate which purchased the Tigers from the W.O. Briggs, Sr. estate in 1956, Fetzer gained two-third control in 1960 and 15 months later bought the remaining shares to give the Tigers their first one-man ownership since Briggs' death in 1952.

A firm believer in the philosophy of a one-man ownership, Fetzer waited for his precise successor before passing on the guardianship.

Born at Decatur, IN, March 25, 1901, Fetzer attended high school at West Lafayette, IN, and it was there he became interested in railroad telegraphy, which led to his interest in radio and eventually television.

He attended Purdue University in 1921, dropped out to take radio engineering on a commercial basis, but returned to college to get a degree in 1927 at Andrews University near Benton Harbor. Fetzer also graduated from the National Radio Institute in Washington, did graduate work at the University of Michigan and extension work at the University of Wisconsin. He received an honorary LL.D. degree from Western Michigan University and from Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Fetzer is the recipient of numerous awards for his contributions to baseball and the broadcasting industries. Among the most prestigious awards were the Golden Mike Award in January, 1981 and the August A. Busch, Jr. Award for meritorious service to baseball in December, 1981.

He has been a member of baseball's Executive Council, highest level policy-making unit, on two occasions, 1961-65 and 1974-81.

Among Fetzer's holdings over the years have been a number of radio and television stations throughout the United States. His home remains in Kalamazoo.

THOMAS S. MONAGHAN
Vice-Chairman & Owner

Thomas S. Monaghan is a beautiful blend of complex business genius and simple love of baseball innocence.

The combination makes the youthful Monaghan one of the most respected and loved individuals in both the worlds of international business and baseball.

That's quite an accomplishment for a man who forged his own destiny and enters the 1986 baseball season at a youthful 49-years of age.

Monaghan is the founder, chairman of the board and president of Domino's Pizza, Inc., the world's largest pizza delivery company and second largest pizza chain in the country.

And on Oct 10, 1983, Monaghan realized a lifelong dream when it was announced he had purchased the Detroit Tigers as sole owner.

Monaghan's love of baseball was born during his boyhood which was spent in various parts of the state of Michigan. But his passion became the Detroit Tigers.

"I never wanted to own the Yankees or Dodgers or any other major league club," Monaghan said. "I wanted the Tigers."

And as much as Monaghan wanted the Tigers, the franchise couldn't have gotten a more loving and concerned guardian.

Monaghan credits much of his success to his choice of the right people in key positions of all his business holdings. It's proven successful at Domino's and he's applied the same philosophy to the Tigers.

Monaghan serves on the Tigers' three-man board of directors with former owner John E. Fetzer and President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Campbell.

Under Monaghan's two-year ownership, the Tigers already have won a World Championship and have attracted more than 5 million fans to Tiger Stadium.

Monaghan maintains his burning passion for the Tigers and is determined to keep the club a property of the average family person.

Monaghan's personal integrity and sense of high ethics ensures the continuance of the same qualities in the highly regarded Tiger franchise.

Monaghan was born at Ann Arbor, MI, in 1937. He was raised in an orphanage, foster homes and attended Catholic schools in Traverse City. He entered a Grand Rapids seminary before graduating from an Ann Arbor High School in 1955. As a teenager, he worked as a laborer on several Northern Michigan farms.

Monaghan attended Ferris State College before enlisting in the Marine Corps in 1956. Receiving his honorable discharge in 1959, he returned to Ann Arbor, enrolled at the University of Michigan, and worked three part-time jobs to support himself.

Monaghan's affiliation with the pizza business began in 1960, when he and his brother, James, borrowed $500 and opened a small pizza store, Dominick's Pizza, in Ypsilanti. Eight months later, he bought out his brother's share and formed another partnership. He then began operating stores in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Mount Pleasant.

While making his first delivery at the Mount Pleasant store, Monaghan met his furture wife, Majorie. They married in 1962, and now reside in Ann Arbor. They have four daughters.

In 1965, after dissolving his partnership, Monaghan named his new business Domino's Pizza, Inc. By 1973, he had more than 60 Domino's Pizza stores in operation. Now there are more than 2,500.

Monaghan pioneered several innovations, which have become common throughout the pizza industry, including a staff corrugated box and the hot box oven which keeps pizza warm while en route to the customer.

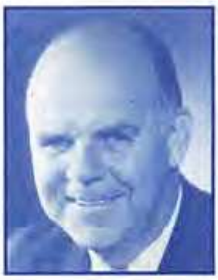
His community affiliations include membership in the Knights of Columbus, and the Ann Arbor, and Ypsilanti Chambers of Commerce.

He is a member of the University of Michigan Presidents Club, the Ann Arbor Presidents' Association, and the Young Presidents' Organization.

A member of the International Franchise Association, Monaghan is also a trustee of the Michigan Hospitality Industry Political Action Committee. He is a director of the Michigan National Bank in Ann Arbor, and is a director of Gelman Sciences, Inc., Ann Arbor. In addition, he also serves on the board of directors for Cleary College, Ypsilanti; WTVS Channel 56, Detroit; and the National Restaurant Association. Monaghan has been listed in Who's Who in Michigan and the Outstanding Americans Listing, and in the Harvard Business School of Detroit's 1984 Entrepeneur of the Year Award winner.

In 1984, he was appointed to the board of directors for National Bank of Detroit. He also is on the board of directors of Henry Ford Hospital.

Monaghan holds two honorary Ph.D. degrees. Cleary College, in 1982, and Madonna College, in 1983, awarded him honorary Doctor of Philosophy degrees.



JAMES A. CAMPBELL

President & Chief Executive Officer

Jim Campbell has established himself as one of baseball's most respected executives through his career with the Detroit Tigers which has encompassed his entire working life.

Since joining the organization in 1949 through his present position as president and chief executive officer, Campbell has demonstrated a tireless drive and keen insight into all aspects of the industry.

Campbell assumed his present position after serving 21 years as general manager of the Tigers—one of the longest tenures in that position in any professional sport.

Under his leadership, the Tigers have become one of the most respected professional sports franchises in the world. The integrity and unmatched ethical standards of the Tiger organization are a direct reflection of Campbell's own.

It's difficult to imagine the Tigers without Campbell's leadership. Through the current corporate structure, Tiger fans can rest assured of continued excellence.

Campbell serves on the Tigers three-man board of directors with Tom Monaghan and John E. Fetzer. And as president and chief executive officer, Campbell oversees the roles of General Manager Bill Lajoie and Chief Operating Officer Bill Haase.

Campbell enjoys a thorough working knowledge of professional baseball from the lowest rung of the minor leagues through the very top. But it's his personal integrity and loyalty which have helped lift the Tigers to the position of prominence and respect they enjoy. Throughout his career, Campbell always has been quick to credit those who work for him.

CAMPBELL (Continued)

Campbell joined the Tiger organization in December, 1949, soon after graduation from Ohio State University as business manager of the Thomasville, GA, farm club. He progressed through the system and was called to the Tigers in October, 1952, to become business manager of the farm department.

He was named vice-president in 1959. He became general manager at the end of the 1962 season and was named president in August, 1978.

Campbell held the post of general manager until October, 1983, when he assumed his present post.

Campbell's accomplishments throughout his career could fill a book. Amongst his proudest, however, are Detroit's two World Championships—1968 and 1984—under his leadership.

Under Campbell, the Tigers also notched four second-place finishes and the 1972 American League East Division title. In 15 of his 21 years as general manager, the Tigers were above .500.

From 1963 through 1985, the Tigers drew 35,423,546 persons for a yearly average of 1,540,154.

One of Campbell's early achievements was construction and development of Tigertown, the spring training base in Lakeland, FL, which has been in use since 1953. He also was instrumental in developing the Marchant Stadium facilities now used by the Tigers in spring training.

Campbell reorganized the scouting department under Ed Katalinas and later was instrumental in pioneering the successful use of the Central Scouting Bureau under the jurisdiction of Lajoie.

Born at Huron, OH, on Feb 5, 1924, Campbell was a three-sport high school standout there. He played baseball for three years at Ohio State from where he was graduated in 1949. Between his high school and college education, Campbell spent four years (1943-46) in the U.S. Navy Air Corps.

Campbell was named the 1968 Sporting News Executive of the Year. In May, 1985, he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

WILLIAM R. LAJOIE
Vice-President & General Manager

Bill Lajoie is a baseball man who has paid his dues for his place of excellence in the game's executive elite.

As vice-president and general manager, Lajoie is responsible for all baseball operations, reporting directly to Jim Campbell. Lajoie offers the Tigers a distinguished and thorough baseball background and intricate knowledge of the game.

Lajoie was named general manager in October, 1983. He wasted no time justifying the club's confidence in him as he initiated several key moves that led to Detroit's World Championship in 1984.

Lajoie's rise to his lofty position is accompanied with first-hand experience in all baseball operations. His thoroughness of execution is a reflection of his complete baseball background.

Born at Wyandotte, MI, on Sept 27, 1934, Lajoie starred in baseball at Detroit's Denby High and Western Michigan University where he made the 1955 All-America team as a centerfielder.

After signing a bonus contract with the Baltimore Orioles, Lajoie spent 10 years (1955-64) as a minor league standout. Lajoie batted over .300 in four minor league seasons, but a broken leg shattered what seemed like a certain major league career.

Blessed with a keen eye for talent and possessing an insight for the intricacies of the game, Lajoie turned to scouting for the Cincinnati Reds (1965-68).

Lajoie became a Tiger scout in November, 1968. In June, 1969, he managed the Tiger rookie club at Bristol, VA, in the Appalachian League.

Lajoie moved into the Tiger front office in 1970 as supervisor of Michigan scouts. After four years in that position, Lajoie became coordinator of scouting in 1974 and in 1975 assumed the position of director of player procurement.

In 1978, he was named vice-president/baseball, a position he held until 1983 when he was named general manager.

Under Lajoie, the Tigers developed one of the most productive farm systems in baseball.

A former teacher in the Detroit Public School system, Lajoie is a member of Western Michigan University's Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Gloria, have two sons and a daughter.

TIGERS SHOWER CASH ON SANDLOTTERS

In the past 22 seasons the Tigers have raised over $2.1 million for amateur baseball in the Michigan-Ohio-Ontario area with a series of benefit exhibition games which will continue in 1986.

In the early years of Sandlot Benefit Exhibition Game at Tiger Stadium, different National League teams provided the opposition. More recently, the Cincinnati Reds and Tigers have played a home-and-home series.

The benefit exhibitions continue with scheduled games at Cincinnati, May 17 and at Tiger Stadium, May 28.

These Inter-league rivals have played 22 times since 1974 with the Tigers holding a 16-5-1 series lead.

WILLIAM E. HAASE
Executive Vice-President & Chief Operating Officer

Bill Haase is a reflection of Tiger philosophy—progress and promotion from within the organization.

Haase serves as executive vice-president and chief operating officer. In his position, he is responsible for all operations other than baseball. He reports directly to Jim Campbell.

Before his most recent appointment, Haase had served as vice-president/operations since August, 1978.

Under Haase's direction, the Tigers successfully initiated several significant changes. The most notable are an $18 million interior and exterior renovation of Tiger Stadium and the conversion of the ticket office operations to a completely computerized system.

Haase joined the Tigers in July, 1975, as business manager, with an educational and business background in accounting. His ability to handle a wide range of assignments led to his speedy elevation to the club's vice-presidency.

Born Dec 26, 1943 at Highland Park, MI, Haase was a 1962 graduate of South Lake High School in St. Clair Shores. He received a degree in business administration, majoring in accounting, from Western Michigan University in 1971.

He spent more than three years in the U.S. Marine Corps before entering college, becoming a sergeant in Vietnam.

After his college graduation, he joined the firm of Copper Brass Sales, Inc., of Detroit, and was on assignment to that firm's office in Oakland, CA, when the Tigers appointed him to the business manager's post in 1975.

A long-time Tiger advocate, Haase is an all-around sports enthusiast who enjoys various activities in his spare time. A member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he also was a member of the Western Michigan Honorary Accounting Society and president of the Western Michigan Veterans Association while in college.

A resident of Sterling Heights, Haase and his wife, Sandy, have one son, John, who is a member of the U.S. Marine Corps.

ALEXANDER C. CALLAM
Vice-President/Finance & Secretary-Treasurer

The man with his finger on the financial pulse of the Tigers is Alex Callam, vice-president/finance and secretary-treasurer.

In his role of vice-president/finance, he handles a variety of financial affairs which include accounting, banking, taxes and insurance, among others. He assumed that position in August, 1978, following four years as secretary-treasurer—succeeding Harry M. Sisson in 1974 when Sisson retired after 43 years of service.

Previous to joining the Tiger official family as business manager in 1962, Callam acquired a basic knowledge of baseball operations while auditing the Tigers' accounts for an outside firm, starting in 1958.

His appointment to the Tiger staff came at a point when Sisson, then executive vice-president, announced plans to gradually phase himself out of the club's operations.

Callam was born at Windsor, Ontario, Aug 27, 1928. After graduation from Assumption University in Windsor with a bachelor of arts degree in 1949, he continued his education at the University of Michigan and received a master's degree in business administration in 1956.

That year, he joined the firm of Ernst & Ernst and became a certified public accountant two years later, immediately taking over the Tiger audit as one of his principal duties.

In the United States Army from 1951 through 1953, Callam is an ardent golfer, and expert bridge player and an avid follower of all sports.

His professional affiliations include the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

FIVE-100 GAME WINNERS

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season—and two of them failed to win pennants. Under Sparky Anderson, the 1984 Tigers set a club record of 104 regular season wins. The Tigers (104-58) swept three games in the Playoffs and four of five games in the World Series. Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2½ games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk. The 1934 Bengals (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane won a pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way by defeating St. Louis for the World Championship.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

A renovation of Tiger Stadium was started in November, 1977 after the historic plant was sold to the City of Detroit for $1 and leased back to the Tigers for 30 years with a 30-year renewal option.

Installation of all modern plastic seats was completed before Opening Day, 1980. The $2 million electronic scoreboard, with message capabilities, is in its eighth season, as are the modern broadcast facilities. External renovation of Tiger Stadium was completed in 1983.

Two improvments, financed by the Tigers before the sale of the stadium, were 1977 installation of a $500,000 multi-vapor field lighting system and construction of a $600,000 pressbox to replace one destroyed by fire Feb 1, 1977.

Seating capacity (subject to final adjustments) is projected at 52,806 with 11,732 box seats, 23,606 reserved 6,269 general admission and 11,199 bleachers.

Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born with Detroit as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan 1, 1961.

TIGERS ON THE AIR

Consistency and quality are the hallmarks which characterize Tiger baseball on radio and television.

Radio Station WJR (760) has served as flagship since 1964 and currently heads a network around the state of Michigan. And when the Tigers are on the radio it stands to reason that Ernie Harwell and Paul Carey are on hand to describe all the action home and away.

Harwell came to Detroit for the 1960 season. Carey became his broadcast partner in 1973. The pair currently enjoys the status of being the longest unaltered radio team in the American League, with 1986 their 14th consecutive season together.

Harwell's broadcast background began in 1940 and he has been on the major league scene since 1948, describing the action for the Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants and Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Tigers in 1960. In 1981, Harwell received his highest broadcasting honor when he was given the Ford Frick Award which hangs proudly in Cooperstown.

Carey has won numerous broadcasting awards during his professional career that goes back to 1949. He is best known for his resonant tone and friendly manner.

The Tiger TV team boasts a pair of Hall of Fame players—George Kell, who was elected in 1983, and Al Kaline who was elected in 1980. The two have distinctive styles and keen insights into the game which give their audience that little extra edge.

Kell was an American League infield star 14 years with the Tigers and four other teams and was the 1949 batting champion. He broke into broadcasting with a pre-game show on the Tiger network in 1958, then moved into the booth in 1959 doing play-by-play every year since, except 1964.

Kaline, all-time Tiger great, began his broadcasting career in 1976 doing a limited number of games in the second year of his retirement. He became a full-time telecaster in 1977.

The Tiger flagship TV station is WDIV, (Channel 4) which also feeds an outstate network. WDIV has been the Tiger flagship since 1975 although when known as WWDT-TV it telecast the first Tiger game in 1947.

In addition, the Tigers televise 80 games to about 200 cable systems in counties throughout Michigan, Ohio and Indiana through Pro Am Sports System.

STADIUM CONCESSIONS

Concession sales at Tiger Stadium are handled by Bismarck Food Service, Inc., under the direction of Bob Sherman, Director of Concession Operations. For further information: BISMARCK FOOD SERVICE, INC., 17117 W. Nine Mile Rd., Suite 1004, Southfield, MI 48075, (313) 559-4480.

CLEARING THE ROOF

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, 20 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Eighteen have gone over the rightfield roof and two over the more-distant leftfield roof.

The first over-the-roof homer was delivered by Ted Williams during his rookie season in the American League.

The most recent clout was by Lou Whitaker, May 13, 1985.

The 1969 roof-clearing homer credited to Jim Northrup bounced back on the field—but only after clearing the top of the roof before striking an obstruction on the other side.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934—a blow which cleared the rightfield wall and rolled several hundred feet down a street leading to the stadium. Even longer was a Ruthian blast of June 8, 1926 which also cleared the wall and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street. The ball was retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning it to the Bambino.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Since 1900, major league batters have hit single-double-triple-homer in a game 165 times—85 in the American League and 80 in the National League.

Seven Tigers have hit for the cycle (see table below). The last was Hoot Evers, Sept 7, 1950 in a 10-inning tie with Cleveland at Briggs Stadium.

Fans at Detroit have seen 10 players hit for the cycle, five Tigers and five opponents (see table below).

Four players hit for the cycle in 1985. San Francisco's Jeff Leonard at Chicago June 27 and Keith Hernandez of the New York Mets at Atlanta July 4 did it in the National League. Oddibe McDowell of Texas vs. Cleveland July 23 and Boston's Rich Gedman vs. Toronto September 18 did it in the American League.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record for most times hitting for the cycle with the third of his career at Navin Field July 26, 1928. The Cubs' Babe Herman tied the record in 1933.

The Tigers have played more games than any other franchise in the American League—13,192 including ties and replays. They enter the 1986 season with 6,801 victories to their credit. Only the New York Yankees have won more games—7,421 (inc. 1901-02, when the franchise was in Baltimore).

TIGER POST-SEASON HISTORY
WORLD SERIES

1907 — Chicago 4 games, Detroit 0 (Plus 12-inn. tie)

Manager Frank Chance's National League champions by 17½-game margin were easy winners over Hughie Jennings' tired Tigers, who nosed out Philadelphia by six points in bitter finishing drive. Tiger morale suffered when Catcher Charlie Schmidt failed to hold 9th-inning third strike which would have ended first game on winning note. Darkness brought 3-3 tie in 12 innings and Cubs, who stole 18 bases during series, went on to well-deserved triumph.

History repeated as Frank Chance's hard-hitting Cubs, one-game National League winners over New York, easily handled Hughie Jennings' Tigers, last-day victors over Chicago in American League. Tigers scored 15 runs in first three games, then were shut out twice. George Mullin won Detroit's only victory in third game with help of four hits by Ty Cobb.

First World Series going limit was taken by Fred Clarke's Pirates when Babe Adams, unheralded rookie, surprisingly won three decisions over Hughie Jennings' battling Tigers as two teams alternated in winning. Honus Wagner batted .333 for Pirates in duel with Ty Cobb, who hit .231 in his last World Series. Bill Abstein, Pirate first baseman, fanned 10 times and was fired as soon as series ended.

Tigers qualified with first American League pennant in 25 years under Mickey Cochrane's aggressive management but were nosed out by Frank Frisch's Cardinals in bitter series marked by final-game row in which Commissioner Landis removed Joe Medwick from game when Detroit fans showered field with garbage following Medwick's collision with Marv Owen, Tiger third baseman. Dean brothers, Dizzy and Paul, won two games each for Cards; Charlie Gehringer hit .379 for Tigers and Pepper Martin .355 for Cards.

Tommy Bridges scored two mound victories, Alvin Crowder and Schoolboy Rowe one each for Tigers. In final game, Cochrane scored winning run on Goose Goslin's single, throwing delirious Detroit fans into wild celebration lasting all night.

Bill McKechnie's Reds, easy winners in regular season, gave National League its first World Series triumph since 1934 by edging out Del Baker's Tigers, next-to-last day pennant winners in American League. Bobo Newsom won twice for Tigers, despite father's death in Cincinnati hotel following first game, but lost finale while pitching with one day's rest. Steve O'Neill's Tigers, last-game pennant winners on grand slam homer by Hank Greenberg just back from army, continued World Series hex over Charlie Grimm's Cubs in wartime atmosphere. Hank Borowy pitched shutout and Claude Passeau had one-hitter for Cubs but Hal Newhouser fanned 22 in series and won twice for Tigers. After losing three of first four games, Mayo Smith's Tigers stormed back for three straight over Red Schoendienst's Cardinals as series MVP Mickey Lolich won three games. Al Kaline got chance in his first World Series after 16 years with Tigers when Smith broke up regular outfield by moving Mickey Stanley to shortstop to make room for Kaline. Denny McLain, Tigers' 31-game regular season winner, lost opening game when Bob Gibson fanned 17; split two later decisions.

1984 — Detroit 4 games, San Diego 1

The Tigers completed their goal, one which began following the 1983 season, grew in Spring Training, matured with a 35-5 start and reached fruition in mid-October. Larry Herndon homered in Game 1 to lift the Tigers to a 3-2 victory behind the determined Jack Morris. The Padres rebounded from an early 3-0 deficit to win 5-3 in the next game on the strength of a 3-run home run by Kurt Bevacqua. Back at Tiger Stadium, the Tigers won with the help from "role players" as well as starters. Marty Castillo's 2-run home run in the 2nd inning propelled the Tigers to a 5-2 win in the third game. Alan Trammell hit a pair of home runs to back Morris' 2nd complete game, a 4-2 victory pushing the Tigers to the brink of a championship. Kirk Gibson powered the Tigers over the top with 2 home runs in Game 5 scored the winning run on Rusty Kuntz's sacrifice fly. Trammell was voted MVP. This series was a rematch between the 1972 World Series of Sparky Anderson then with Cincinnati and Dick Williams then with Oakland.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

1972 — Oakland 3 games, Detroit 2

Billy Martin's battling Tigers lost first two games to Dick Williams' A's at Oakland, won next two at Detroit but finally bowed by one run as American League got its first five-game championship. Tight pitching marked series with two shutouts and other three games decided by one run. Bert Campaneris, of A's, was fined and suspended at start of following season for throwing bat at Lerrin LaGrow when hit on ankle by Tiger pitcher in second game.

1984 — Detroit 3 games, Kansas City 0

As was the case during the entire regular season, Sparky Anderson's Tigers never trailed in the series, either in games or by score. The best Dick Howser's Royals could do was a 3-3 tie in the 8th through 10th innings of Game 2. The Tigers' Lou Whitaker and Alan Trammell got things going early and often. Three homers won the first game in a breeze, 8-1. John Grubb's clutch 2-run double in the 11th off Dan Quisenberry won Game 2, 5-3. It was back to Tiger Stadium for the clincher. Milt Wilcox allowed just 2 hits over 8 innings and Marty Castillo drove in the only run of the game. Willie Hernandez got the final three outs and the Tigers won 1-0 to advance to their 9th World Series. Kirk Gibson was voted MVP.

TIGERS WORLD SERIES CLINCHERS

The Tigers won their first World Series with a pulsating 4-3 victory at home in the 6th game of the series. That game was tied entering the 9th inning when Stan Hack of the Cubs led off with a triple. However, a strikeout, ground out and fly out kept him from scoring. The Tigers then sent the city into an explosion of joy when Goose Goslin singled home Mickey Cochrane with 2 outs to give the Tigers the title.

1968

This series was supposed to be a showcase for baseball's best pitchers, Denny McLain, the Tigers' 31-game winner and Bob Gibson of the St. Louis with his miniscule 1.12 ERA. However, Mickey Lolich stole the spotlight with three complete game victories including a 4-1 triumph in Game 7. The Tigers fought back from a 3-1 series deficit and were locked in a scoreless tie in the 7th inning of the finale when Jim Northrup tripled home the game's first runs.

The Cubs again were the victims as the Tigers won their second World Series. The series went the distance with the deciding game at Wrigley Field. In contrast to the first four games in which pitching dominated, the final three contests featured heavy hitting. In the 7th game the Tigers unloaded with 5 runs in the opening inning and were never threatened. Hal Newhouser pitched a complete game to secure the championship by a 9-3 score.

Kirk Gibson crushed a Rich Gossage pitch deep into the upper deck in the bottom of the 8th inning to break open a close game and vault the Tigers to an 8-4 victory in the 5th game of the World Series. The Padres trailed 3-0 but rallied to tie the game. Gibson scored the go-ahead run on a short fly ball. Lance Parrish and Kurt Bevacqua traded home runs before Gibson's 3-run shot put the title on ice.

GAMES AT DETROIT

July 8, 1941—AL 7, NL 5

GAME NO. 9 — Still regarded as the best finish in All-Star Game history, the American League defeated the National League 7-5 with a 4-run rally in the 9th inning. The difference in the game was Ted Williams' 2-out home run with Joe Gordon and Joe DiMaggio on base.

Overlooked because of Williams' heroics was Pittsburgh's Arky Vaughan. All he did was become the first player to hit two home runs in an All-Star Game, had a single and drove in four runs.

GAMES AT DETROIT

July 13, 1971—AL 6, NL 4

GAME NO. 42—The air was full of electricity as the American League ended an 8-game losing streak in the Mid-Summer Classic, 6-4. An All-Star Game record-tying six home runs were belted, three by each team.

Hall-of-Fame caliber players Johnny Bench, Hank Aaron and Roberto Clemente for the Nationals and Reggie Jackson, Frank Robinson and Harmon Killebrew for the Americans put the ball into the stands-and in the case of Jackson, almost out of the park.

Jackson's home run is another highlight of the All-Star Game which will indelibly mark the 1971 game among the best in the history of the inter-league contest.

GEORGE LEE ANDERSON

Manager

Nickname: Sparky. Born: Bridgewater, SD 2-22-34 (51) 5-9 170 B-R T-R. (Infielder).
Married: Carol Valle. Children: George Jr., Shirlee Trece, Albert William.
Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA.

Sparky Anderson's list of achievements as manager of the Detroit Tigers grows more impressive each year. Already the dean in the American League, only Tommy Lasorda of Los Angeles has more continuous service among major league field leaders.

Sparky's tenure at Detroit has reached seven seasons and 563 victories. In Tiger history only Hughie Jennings has won more games as manager (1131) and only Jennings and Bucky Harris surpass his total of 1025 games.

Under Sparky's direction, the Tigers have finished above the .500 mark each year. But success is a Sparky Anderson trademark. The Tigers recognized this fact when they extended his contract through the 1988 season.

Sparky has a 16-year major league record of 1426-1047 (.577) and a Tiger mark of 563-461 (.550). His overall winning percentage is 8th highest of 20th century managers with at least 10 years experience. Sparky's cumulative victory total is 13th highest in the history of the game.

Hired on June 12, 1979, Sparky was in uniform two games later. The Tigers matured with his guidance, rising from 5th place in 1980, his first full season at the helm, to just missing post-season action in 1981.

Sparky molded his team and saw the fruits of his labor take shape with a 2nd place finish in 1983. Then the Tigers astounded the baseball world with a season which may never be seen again.

The 1984 Tigers exploded to a club-record 104 victories then swept Kansas City en route to the World Series. Once there, San Diego proved no match, falling in five games.

Sparky was honored as American League Manager of the Year and took his place in baseball history. No other manager can boast 100-win seasons in each league; playoff sweeps in each league; a World Series title in each league.

The Tigers knew what they were getting when Sparky signed on with the team. His reputation and accomplishments with Cincinnati were well documented. The Reds were one of baseball's most formidable teams in his command, 1970-1978. His record (863-586, .596) was the best in the National League during that time.

Sparky's Reds won five West Division titles, four pennants and a pair of World Series. Cincinnati became only the 3rd National League team and the first in 54 years to win back-to-back World Series in 1975-76.

He has been NL Manager of the Year twice (1972 and 1975) and perennially involved with the All-Star Game. Sparky has managed the NL four times and the AL once. He has been a coach three times, the past two for the AL.

Born February 22, 1934 at Bridgewater, SD, Sparky grew up in California. He played in the minor leagues for six seasons as an infielder.

In 1959 Sparky played for the Philadelphia Phillies, his only season in the major leagues. However, upon returning to the minors he honed his managerial abilities and was named to his first assignment in 1964 at Toronto.

His move to the major league level came in 1970. Following the 1969 season, spent as a coach for the San Diego Padres, Sparky was added to the staff of the California Angels but within 24 hours was given the manager's job at Cincinnati.

His initial season saw the Reds win 102 games and earn a berth in the World Series opposite the Baltimore Orioles. It was to be the first of many impressive seasons.

SPARKY'S TIGER TIES

Sparky Anderson's first game at Detroit didn't come in 1979 when he was named manager of the Tigers. It came almost 30 years earlier when he and Coach Billy Consolo were members of the 1951 Crenshaw Post of Los Angeles which played for a national championship in American Legion ball at Briggs Stadium.

Sparky also managed an All-Star Game, on the National League side, at Tiger Stadium in 1971. The American League won that game, 6-4.

Two former Tiger managers played prominent roles in Sparky's baseball life. In 1959 Sparky played his only season in the major leagues, for the Philadelphia Phillies. His manager was Mayo Smith who was to lead the 1968 Tigers to a World Series championship.

Charlie Dressen is the man Sparky credits for having the greatest influence on him in becoming one of baseball's most successful managers.

Another member of the Tigers' front office, Vice-President and General Manager Bill Lajoie, was Sparky's roommate in the minor leagues when both were at Toronto of the International League.

So Sparky Anderson had many ties to the Tigers much before he was named manager.

SPARKY—NO. 11 IS NUMBER 1

Sparky Anderson is the dean of American League managers, beating out Tony LaRussa of the Chicago White Sox by 1½ months.

Anderson was hired by the Tigers on June 12, 1979 and was in uniform two days later. LaRussa made his debut on August 2 of that year.

Only Tommy Lasorda of Los Angeles has a longer tenure with the same club than Anderson.

HISTORICAL HAPPENINGS

In 1911, 75 years ago, Ty Cobb set team records with a .420 batting average, 248 hits, 147 runs scored and a 40-game hitting streak.

In 1916, 70 years ago, the Tigers walked 18 times in a 9-inning game vs. Philadelphia, May 9, to tie a major league record.

In 1936, 50 years ago, Walter O. Briggs, Sr. became club president beginning a 21-year period of Tiger ownership under the Briggs name.

1941, 45 years ago, Ted Williams' 3-run homer in the bottom of the 9th inning gave the American League it's most famous All-Star victory, 7-5 at Briggs Stadium.

In 1951, 35 years ago, Ty Tyson concluded his career as the Tigers' radio announcer, a career which began in 1927.

1961, 25 years ago, John E. Fetzer was named club president. He was to hold that post until 1978, longer than any man in Tiger history.

1971, 15 years ago, lefty Mickey Lolich set a Tiger record with 308 strikeouts.

1976, 10 years ago, Bird-mania struck the nation as Mark Fidrych set the baseball world aglow with his antics, 19 wins and 2.34 ERA.

1981, 5 years ago, the Tigers lost out to Milwaukee for the 2nd half division title on the next-to-last day of the season.

HOW THEY BECAME TIGERS

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit baseball club in 1895.

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896, although George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the move which resulted in the nickname when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

Later evidence makes it appear that an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press actually originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings.

In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western League under the ownership of G.A. Van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purpoted to be the cream of California baseball players"—which may account for the name.

Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read: "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed: "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called them the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, the Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895 careful search of the files disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had used "Tigers."

Thus it seems that the Detroit Free Press must get cedit for originating the Tiger nickname in 1895—unless someone has other new evidence to the contrary.

TIGERS UNDER THE LIGHTS

The first night game the Tigers ever played was June 20, 1939, when they blanked the Athletics, 5-0, at Philadelphia — one of three cities (along with Cleveland and Chicago) to launch night play in the American League that year.

The Tigers' first game under the lights at Tiger Stadium was June 15, 1948, when they again defeated the A's, 4-1. The Tigers, last of the American League's then-eight teams to install lights, scheduled only seven night games that year but soon doubled the number, then proceeded to the current level of 50-55 at home per season.

In the 1939-85 period, the Tigers have played 3,087 night games (home and road), winning 1,617 for a .524 winning percentage.

DIVISION OF THE DECADE

TIGERS LEAD IN TRIPLE PLAYS

The Tigers are the triple play champs of Major League Baseball with 31 since 1900.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals lead the National League with 29 each. Next in the majors are the Boston Red Sox with 28.

The last time the Tigers turned a triple play was at Milwaukee on Aug 20, 1980 (Tom Brookens to Lou Whitaker to Richie Hebner).

The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start their historic run of three-ply killings. The 1911 Tigers had a trio of triple plays to their credit.

The Kansas City Royals and Chicago Cubs were the only major league teams to pull a triple play in 1985.

TWO OF A KIND

Tiger Stadium and Boston's Fenway Park are hailed as two of baseball's more picturesque ballparks. They actually have more than that in common, having opened its doors on the same day, April 20, 1912. On that date, the Tigers beat Cleveland 6-5 while in Boston, the Red Sox beat New York 7-6 in 11 innings.

CIRCLE SWIPES

The art of stealing second base, third base and home has been accomplished many times in major league history, particularly by Ty Cobb. The Tigers have had four players do it a total of 10 times.

BAT CONTROL

The Tigers' Hall-of-Fame Second Baseman Charlie Gehringer is the only player in club history to hit 10 or more home runs in a season with fewer strikeouts than home runs. In 1935 Gehringer connected for 19 homers and fanned only 16 times to help lead the team to its first World Series title. The following season, 1936, Gehringer hit 15 home runs, two more than his strikeout total of 13.

GATES BROWN PINCH HIT KING

Gates Brown broke into the major leagues with a pinch hit home run on his first trip to the plate and when he retired as an active player 13 years later, he was the premier pinch hitter in American League history.

Brown's initial shot off Bob Heffner at Fenway Park, June 19, 1963, was the first of 16 pinch homers and 107 pinch hits during his career.

The seventh player in history to clear the fence as a pinch hitter in his major league debut, Brown became the 15th to homer in consecutive pinch-hitting appearances when he belted four-baggers on Aug 9-11, 1968.

IN THE BLACK

The 1986 Tigers are in a position to help set a team record. By finishing with more wins than losses, it would mark the 9th consecutive season the Tigers have concluded play over .500. The current string of 8 consecutive winning seasons ties the club record first set between 1943-50.

SPRING TRAINING FACTS SINCE 1966

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first at Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' minor league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof dormitory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 4,200, including 550 box seats. The Tigers' record at Marchant Stadium is 153-113-1 and 867,798 fans have paid to see Grapefruit League games since it opened.

ESTABLISHING ROOTS

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland continuously since 1946, one of just three major league teams with 40 uninterrupted years at the same site (along with Cincinnati at Tampa and St. Louis at St. Petersburg). In fact, the Reds (1931) are the only big league team to have more seniority in the same city than the Tigers at Lakeland (1934)—not including the war years of 1943-44-45.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE

The Tigers have long regarded Lakeland as their spring home. But, few people realize the Cleveland Indians trained there well before the Tigers. The Tribe spent spring training in Lakeland from 1923-27. The Tigers came on the scene in 1934 and with the exception of the war years, 1943-44-45, have been there since.
